

LALL SINGH HANDA FAMILY'S

Durga Puja

Since - 1841

A journey of 183 glorious years

Celebrating 183 years in 2023, the Durga Puja of the Handa family is one of the venerable Durga Pujas of Bengal. The Idol worshiped here is built on a single frame (Ek Chala) with traditional Daker Saj and ornaments & weapons made of gold / silver at the Chandni Bari, which was built exclusively for this purpose. There is an interesting history behind initiation of Durga Puja by the Handa family.

One of the ancestors, Sambhu Nath Lall Singha Handa, started Durga Puja in 1841 AD to overcome the grief & sorrow of the loss of his only daughter during this festival with a thought that she will come every year. Henceforth, Durga Puja is performed every year by the Handa family where goddess Durga is received as a daughter of the family. The uniqueness is that there are no sacrifices offered either in any form of animal or vegetables. On the day of Bijoya Dashami the family bids farewell to goddess Durga with the eldest member present performing the formalities done by a father for his daughter when she departs for her in-law's house.
